PRINT AND/OR ELECTRONIC PUBLICATIONS: Present all publications in a format consistent with your disciplinary style standards such as APA. Bold your name in citations where multiple authors are listed. Divide publications or creative activities into teaching, research and creative activity, or service. Refereed and non-refereed publications should be separated into distinct categories. Co-authored and multiple-authored publications should be listed as they appear on the manuscript and annotated to explain the nature and extent of the candidate's contribution. List only works that are published, accepted or "in-press." Work submitted, under editorial review or in preparation should not be listed but rather reported in the candidate's statement.
