PERMISSION TO USE STUDENT WORK Indiana University School of Informatics

1. Grant of Permission. I, the undersigned, am enrolled in classes at the Indiana University School of Informatics. In the conduct of those courses, I give my permission to use the Work I produce for class in the following ways:
2. Scope of Permission. This permission extends to the use of the Work (concepts, reports, illustrations, project examples, etc.) for educational and/or academic purposes only. These purposes specifically include: (1) showing future student examples of the Work in the originally fixed paper or digital medium or as digitally scanned images for use in presentations (2) providing samples to future students via Web site, or (3) using as examples in published Works that discuss pedagogical issues related to teaching/pedagogical issues or student learning.

The Indiana University School of Informatics and faculty members may also:

- a. Display the Work whole or in part to promote the academic and research mission of the School of Informatics, including fundraising activities
- b. With notification to faculty and students, submit the Work to appropriate competitions, when applicable

If, as a part of the classroom learning experience, I am asked to participate in projects that involve the production of intellectual property for a real world client, I will be able to retain the right, through a written Use and Display agreement, to:

- a. Display the Work whole or in part as part of my resume, curriculum vita or professional technology portfolio
 - b. Build upon design elements in the Work for future professional projects
3. Certification of Authorship. I am the owner of the copyright to the Work, and the Work is not now subject to any grant or restriction that would prevent its use consistent with this permission. Except as explicitly indicated on the Work, all aspects of the Work are original to me and have not been copied.
 4. Privacy Release. I hereby authorize and consent to the release, maintenance and display of my name if necessary, and any other personal information I have provided in connection with the Work and its use. This authorization also includes the disclosure of the content of the Work itself and any associated information. I hereby release The Trustees of Indiana University, its member trustees, officers,
