Catalog description

The research process, including concepts, design, conduct, and evaluation. Principles and characteristics of approaches and methodologies relevant to research in the field. Examples of data sources and introduction to methods of statistical description and analysis; ethical issues.

Learning objectives:

Upon completion of the course, students will:

• understand the nature of scientific inquiry,
• the conduct of research,
• multiple methods of collecting, managing, and analyzing evidence (data),
• and the relationship between theory, method, and evidence;
• understand how ethical behavior is essential for the conduct of science;
• have a basis for an informed and critical evaluation of the research literature in the field, including how to read a research report and report research results;
• be able to locate and use information about scientific research and primary and secondary data resources, including data analysis and descriptive statistics; and,
• have the foundation for designing and conducting future research in the field of library and information science

MLS Program Outcomes:

This course supports the achievement of the following:

• Assist and Educate Users
• Manage and Lead Libraries and Other Information Organizations
• Use Research Effectively
• Approach Professional Issues with Understanding

Principles of Graduate and Professional Learning:

This course addresses the following:

• Demonstrating mastery of the knowledge and skills expected for the degree and for professionalism and success in the field
• Thinking critically, applying good judgment in professional and personal situations
• Communicating effectively to others in the field and to the general public
• Behaving in an ethical way both professionally and personally

Required Texts/Readings:

Required readings are listed for each week on the course schedule. All journal articles are available through the University Library unless otherwise stated.

Rights & Responsibilities:

Indiana University and School of Library and Information Science policies on academic dishonesty will be followed. Students found to be engaging in plagiarism, cheating, and other types of dishonesty will receive a failing grade for each assignment found to be plagiarized.

Academic (e.g. plagiarism) and personal misconduct by students in this class are defined by and dealt with according to the procedures in the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct (http://www.dsa.indiana.edu/Code).

The entire IUPUI - Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct is part of the syllabus. You can find the Code here: http://www.iupui.edu/code/CSR_0106.pdf
Americans with Disabilities Act: Accommodations will be made for qualified students with disabilities registered with Adaptive Educational Services. Please contact them at 317/274-3241.

Grading

Effective Fall 2010: No course in which a student receives a grade lower than C (2.0) will be counted toward requirements for any SLIS degree. Any required course on which a grade lower than B- is received must be repeated. S506 is a required course.

Late Work: Assignments (other than discussions) more than 1 week late will be lowered by 5 points and then lowered by 5 points for each week thereafter.

Late discussion posts posters will not receive any points.

All Assignments must be turned in by the close of class on May 3.

Students are allowed to redo the following assignments: search strategy, initial bibliography, analysis A & B, and Final parts 1 and 2, one time only, after receiving feedback from the instructor. Assignments must be turned in enough time to receive feedback from the instructor. Therefore, if you want feedback on part 2 of the final – you must turn it prior to the due date.

Points and Grades (Max points=536) Extra credit 5

Minimum points needed for each letter grade:

495 A
480 A-
465 B+
450 B
435 B-
420 C+

Citation (style):

Students in this course must format all citations in written work using the American Psychological Association Publication Manual.

Turning in Work

All written assignments that require uploading are to be turned in via the Canvas system using the following formats: .rft, .doc, .docx. PLEASE PUT YOUR LAST NAME IN THE FILE

DLIS/S506/Spring 2016 Online/Copeland
NAME. One point will be taken off each time you do not include your last name in your file names. Sorry but no matter how many times I ask – most students ignore this request.

Assignments

There are many opportunities for learning in this course. Everything you do for this class is an opportunity to learn, all assignments attempted, every article you read from the course list, every new article you find, posts made to discussion forums, comments made on others posts. Each opportunity will have a certain level of points associated with it. See Assignment Descriptions in the Syllabus section for full details.

Discussions

Points will be given for timeliness in responding, completeness of response, citing the readings, and for substance of response. Thoughtfully reply to your peers with relevant comments. Also, use the optional discussions to share questions you have about the readings or assignments for the respective module. If you are required to comment – instructions will indicate it is so.

Expectations of Students

Students are expected to develop the skills necessary to analyze social science research articles and devise research plans for addressing research questions relevant to library and information science. Also, students will find and read numerous articles related to a topic of their own choosing (readings independent of the syllabus). Students are expected to complete assignments with due dates on time and in the form specified. Students are to inform the instructor before the deadline if unable to complete an assignment. Please use Canvas to email the instructor or the class.

What You Can Expect from Me

1. I will post each week’s notes, announcements, discussion topic by Monday evenings.
2. I will return assignments as soon as possible or within a week of the due date.
3. I usually return emails within 24 hours. If you don’t hear from me within that time, please send another message. Occasionally we have email problems in which emails are dropped or I may have inadvertently overlooked your email.
4. I regard you as colleagues and I’m most comfortable being called "Andrea." I will call you by your first name unless you tell me differently.

Course Schedule

Week 1: August 23 – 8/29: Module 1

Module 1
Introductions: To each other and research.

What is research?
Read:

- Babbie, Chapter 1: Human Inquiry and Science

Due 8/29: Introduction

Week 2: August 30 – 9/5: Labor Day Weekend – No Class

Week 3: September 6 – 9/12: Module 2

Module 2
The Literature Review Process, Cited Reference Searching, Search Processes
Read:

- How to Write a Literature Review: http://library.ucsc.edu/help/howto/write-a-literature-review

Optional, View:

Read:

Due 9/12: Search Strategy, Discussion of My Research Topic

Week 4: September 13 – 9/19: Module 3

Module 3
Research Design: Conceptualization, Operationalization, and Research Questions, Validity & Reliability, Levels of Measurement

Read:

- Babbie, Chapters 4: Research Design & 5: Conceptualization, Operationalization, and Measurement

Due 9/19: Operationalization Discussion (small groups)

Week 5: September 20 – 9/26: Module 4

Module 4
Use of Theory & Testing Hypotheses

Read:

- Chapter 2: Paradigms, Theory, and Social Research

Due 9/20: Analysis A, Theory & Hypothesis Assignment
Week 6: September 27 – 10/3: Modules 5

Module 5
Descriptive Statistics, Scales of Measurement
Read:

- Babbie, Chapter 14: Quantitative Data Analysis

Due 10/3: Initial Bibliography

Week 7: October 4 – 10/10: Module 6

Module 6
Survey and Sampling
Read:

- Babbie, Chapter 7: The Logic of Sampling & Chapter 9: Survey Research

Optional Reading:

Due 10/10: Questionnaire Critique Assignment OR Study Using Survey Discussion

Week 8: October 11 – 10/17: Module 7

Module 7
Research Ethics
Read:

- Babbie Chapter 3: The Ethics and Politics of Social Research

Nothing Due

Week 9: October 18 – 10/24
Module 8
Qualitative Research Overview
Read:
• Chapter 13: Qualitative Data Analysis

Optional Reading:

Due 10/24: Fieldwork Discussion and Ethics Paper
Module 9
Qualitative Data Collection & Analysis Methods

Read:
- Babbie Chapter 10: Qualitative Field Research

Observation
Read:

Optional Reading:
- Richardson, J. (2002, April 15). Reference is better than we thought. Library Journal, 127(7), 41-42.

Optional Reading:

Interviews
Read:

Qualitative Data Analysis Method: Constant Comparative Method

Optional Reading:

Due 10/31: Constant Comparative Method Discussion
Week 11: November 1 – 11/7: Module 10:

Module 10

Historical Research & Content Analysis

Read:

- Babbie, Chapter 12: Unobtrusive Research

Due 11/7: Analysis B, Content Analysis: NFL Inclusivity Discussion

Week 12: November 8 – 11/14: Module 11

Module 11

The use of visual display in data collection, analysis, and presentation

Read:

Review:

Due 11/4: Data Presentation Critique Discussion

Week 13: November 15 – 11/21: Module 12

Module 12

Experimental Research & Inferential Statistics

Read:

- Babbie, Chapter 8: Experiments

Optional:

Due 11/21: Final Part 1: Literature Review & Sex Sells Discussion

Week 14: November 22 to 11/28: Happy Thanksgiving: No Class

Week 15: November 29 to 12/5: Module 13

Due 12/5: Poster Presentation

Week 16: December 6 to 12/12: Module 13

Due 12/12: Final: Research Proposal: Parts 1 and 2

Rubrics used for Evaluation of Learning

The following two rubrics will guide my evaluation of your demonstration of learning. The rubrics reflect those put forth by the Association of American Colleges and Universities. Points will vary depending on the maximum number of points for a particular assignment.
