COURSE DESCRIPTION

Appraisal is often considered the most important process of developing an archive, but without agreed upon standards, how does one go about deciding what has permanent value? Incorporating a strong theoretical foundation with practical approaches, we will explore our responsibilities to the profession, the documentary heritage we steward, and the communities we serve.

EXTENDED COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores the archivist’s most important responsibility: appraisal. Students survey the theories, techniques, and methods that archivists use to identify documents and other materials of enduring value for long-term preservation, access, and use. Students explore why archival materials are being accepted (or selected) for an archive; how society or an organization is "documented"; how archival materials are being used, by whom, and why. Students will also study the history of appraisal and compare divergent contemporary approaches and study the work of various repositories. Emphasis is placed on professionally responsible accountability to contemporaries and the future. By the end of the class, students can conduct an appraisal analysis and design an appraisal or acquisition policy for a collecting institution to serve the archives larger mission.

Required Readings/Resources

Both books are available at a discount to SAA members.

Any additional readings will be available online via Canvas or university databases: IUPUI Main Library database A-Z list (iupui.campusguides.com/az.php)

Recommended Readings/Resources

Required Software
There is no specific software required for this course beyond accessing the course modules and submitting assignments via Canvas.

You have three sources for software: IUware, IUanyWare, Office 365
- IUware (iuware.iu.edu/) allows students, faculty, and staff to download software at no charge. See What is IUware? (kb.iu.edu/d/agze)
- IUanyWare (uits.iu.edu/iuanyware) uses a web browser or mobile app to run certain IU-licensed software applications without your needing to install them on your device. See What is IUanyWare (kb.iu.edu/d/bbbr). Note: You will be asked to download and install Citrix Receiver the first time you use the full service.
- Office 365 (uits.iu.edu/office365) is a subscription-based service free to all IU currently enrolled students that provides multiple options for accessing the newest versions of Microsoft Office. See About Microsoft Office 365 at IU (kb.iu.edu/d/bexq)

Teaching and Learning Methods

Active learning (AL), project-based learning (PBL), and asynchronous use of Canvas.

ASSESSMENTS

Revised Bloom's Taxonomy (RBT)

The revised Bloom’s taxonomy (RBT) presents a way to classify different types of learning experiences across two levels: 1) The revised Bloom’s taxonomy cognitive process (RBTCP) dimension and 2) the revised Bloom’s taxonomy knowledge (RBTK) dimension. The RBTCP dimension represents a continuum of increasing cognitive complexity—from remember to create—across six levels:

1. Knowledge/Remembering: The ability to recall or recognize specific information or data.
2. Understanding: Understanding the meaning of informational materials, translation, interpolation and interpretation of instructions and problems.
3. Application: The use of previously learned information in new and concrete situations to solve problems that have single or best answers.
4. Analysis: Breaks down information/concepts into smaller components. Each component is identified and understood as is the relationship of these components to the whole.
5. Evaluation: The ability to apply a criterion or set of standards to conclude a value judgment.
6. Creation, Synthesis: The ability to merge knowledge into creating a new meaning or structure including demonstrating how and why various diverse elements work together.
Principles of Graduate and Professional Learning (PGPL)

The principles below form a conceptual framework that describes expectations of all graduate/professional students at IUPUI. More specific expectations are determined by the faculty in a student’s field of study. Together, these expectations identify knowledge, skills, and abilities graduates will have demonstrated upon completing their specific degrees. There are four PGPLs:

1. Demonstrating mastery of the knowledge and skills expected for the degree and for professionalism and success in the field
2. Thinking critically, applying good judgment in professional and personal situations
3. Communicating effectively to others in the field and to the general public
4. Behaving in an ethical way both professionally and personally

Framework for Information Literacy (FIL)

The ACRL (Association of College and Research Libraries) Framework for Information Literacy is introduced throughout our curriculum.

1. Authority is Constructed and Contextual
2. Information Creation as a Process
3. Information Has Value
4. Research as Inquiry
5. Scholarship as a Conversation
6. Searching as Strategic Exploration

To learn more, go to Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education (www.ala.org/acrl/standards/ilframework)

MLIS Program Learning Goals (PLGs)

The Master of Library and Information Science (MLIS) program prepares students to become reflective practitioners who connect people and communities with information. The program goals (PGs) were adjusted to the following effective fall 2020:

1. Connect core values and professional ethics to practice
2. Facilitate engagement in the information ecosystem
3. Curate collections for designated communities
4. Lead and manage libraries, archives and other information organizations
5. Organize and represent information
6. Conduct systematic research to inform decisions
7. Innovate professional practice with information services and technology

Each student should not only read the assigned material but also arrive at a competent understanding of it prior to assessment. These measures will be used to assess student-learning outcomes:
1. Papers, Essays, and Discussions assess student expression of course concepts.
2. Exercises assess comprehension and skill acquisition.

Theory Paper (20 points, week 4): After reading and learning about the basic foundations, theories, and methodologies underlying appraisal you will write a paper (4-6 pages) reflecting your views of the respective strengths and weaknesses of these varying approaches.

Collection Policy Essay (15 points, week 6): You will write an essay (3-4 pages) analyzing collection policies of 2-3 repositories of your choosing and present your views in an essay (as to how they reflect appraisal and selection approaches, highlighting any particular strengths or gaps).

Mini-Appraisal Exercise/Discussion (5 points, week 7): Students will collectively discuss an appraisal/selection/re-appraisal scenario and present their views as to an appropriate course of action.

Appraisal Team Exercises (30 points, weeks 9 & 11): In part 1 (20 points), each of you will choose an appraisal case study from those provided and present your recommendations as to what records should be considered archival. In part 2 (10 points), you will evaluate the analysis of one of your colleagues.

Reflection Essays (10 points each, weeks 12, 14, 15): You will write an essay (3-4 pages) presenting your thoughts on each of the following: ethics case studies, social responsibility/power dynamics of archives, and management considerations.

EXPECTATIONS, GUIDELINES, AND POLICIES

Deliverables

You are responsible for completing each deliverable (e.g., task, final project) by its deadline and submitting it by the specified method. Deadlines and submission instructions are outlined in the syllabus or in supplementary documents accessible through Canvas. In fairness to the instructor and students who completed their work on time, a grade on a deliverable shall be reduced 10%, if

For citation purposes, all MLIS students use the 7th edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. This publication will help you structure your writing artifacts (e.g., research papers), write clearly and concisely, follow grammatical rules, and appropriately attribute source material. The Department of Library and Information Science values and expects quality, graduate-level writing.

Your Questions, Concerns, and Comments

Please do not hesitate to contact the instructor directly via Canvas mail with any questions. If needed, the instructor will also use Canvas Announcements to notify the entire group (e.g., syllabus change, instructor availability, etc.).

If you have problems accessing Canvas, please contact the University Information Technology Services (UITS) Support Center at uits.iupui.edu or 317-274-HELP. All course Announcements will be found in Canvas along with the course schedule, assignments, and other course documents.

Attendance
The course will be taught entirely online including web-based readings and resources, threaded discussions, plus online activities.

This course assumes that students can work independently. There are no required face-to-face meetings. There are no required synchronous online meetings. However, students are encouraged to e-mail or arrange an online chat with the instructor at any time.

A basic requirement of this course is that you will participate in all class activities and conscientiously complete all required course assignments. Students are expected to complete the assignments, quizzes, and projects on time, which is your attendance.

Incompletes

Incompletes are not automatically granted. You may arrange a grade of “I” or incomplete for a course with an instructor for special circumstances. Students need to have completed the majority of course work (75%+) at an acceptable level of achievement. You and the instructor must agree upon the terms for completing the course. Students who have multiple incompletes (2 or more) will be blocked from registering for additional LIS courses until there is only one (or zero) outstanding incomplete, or the student presents the department chair with a plan of action for completing all incompletes in a timely way.

Deadlines for the work for an incomplete to be finished are at the instructor’s discretion. The deadline can be no longer than 1 year from the end of the semester, but can be earlier if the instructor specifies that. Left unchanged, an Incomplete automatically becomes an F after one year. See: Student Central: Incompletes (studentcentral.iupui.edu/grades-progress/incompletes.html)

MLIS PROGRAM OUTCOMES

The Master of Library Science (M.L.S.) program prepares students to become reflective practitioners who connect people and communities with information. Upon completion of the M.L.S. program, graduates are prepared to meet the program outcomes.

See M.L.I.S. Program goals

ALA CORE COMPETENCIES

A person graduating from an ALA-accredited master’s program in library and information studies should know and, where appropriate, be able to meet the ALA standards.

See: ALA Core Competences of Librarianship

CODE OF CONDUCT

All students should aspire to the highest standards of academic integrity. Using another student’s work on an assignment, cheating on a test, not quoting or citing references correctly, or any other form of dishonesty or plagiarism shall result in a grade of zero on the item and possibly an F in the course. Incidences of academic misconduct shall be referred to the Department Chair and repeated violations shall result in dismissal from the program.
All students are responsible for reading, understanding, and applying the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct and in particular the section on academic misconduct. Refer to The Code of Student Rights (studentcode.iu.edu/)

All students must also successfully complete How to Recognize Plagiarism: Tutorials and Tests (plagiarism.iu.edu).

You must document the difference between your writing and that of others. Use quotation marks in addition to a citation, page number, and reference whenever writing someone else’s words (e.g., following the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association).

Academic Misconduct

1. Cheating: Cheating is considered to be an attempt to use or provide unauthorized assistance, materials, information, or study aids in any form and in any academic exercise or environment.

   a. A student must not use external assistance on any “in-class” or “take-home” examination, unless the instructor specifically has authorized external assistance. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, the use of tutors, books, notes, calculators, computers, and wireless communication devices.

   b. A student must not use another person as a substitute in the taking of an examination or quiz, nor allow other persons to conduct research or to prepare work, without advanced authorization from the instructor to whom the work is being submitted.

   c. A student must not use materials from a commercial term paper company, files of papers prepared by other persons, or submit documents found on the Internet.

   d. A student must not collaborate with other persons on a particular project and submit a copy of a written report that is represented explicitly or implicitly as the student’s individual work.

   e. A student must not use any unauthorized assistance in a laboratory, at a computer terminal, or on fieldwork.

   f. A student must not steal examinations or other course materials, including but not limited to, physical copies and photographic or electronic images.

   g. A student must not submit substantial portions of the same academic work for credit or honors more than once without permission of the instructor or program to whom the work is being submitted.

   h. A student must not, without authorization, alter a grade or score in any way, nor alter answers on a returned exam or assignment for credit.

2. Fabrication: A student must not falsify or invent any information or data in an academic exercise including, but not limited to, records or reports, laboratory results, and citation to the sources of information.
3. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as presenting someone else’s work, including the work of other students, as one’s own. Any ideas or materials taken from another source for either written or oral use must be fully acknowledged, unless the information is common knowledge. What is considered “common knowledge” may differ from course to course.

   a. A student must not adopt or reproduce ideas, opinions, theories, formulas, graphics, or pictures of another person without acknowledgment.

   b. A student must give credit to the originality of others and acknowledge indebtedness whenever:

      - directly quoting another person’s actual words, whether oral or written;
      - using another person’s ideas, opinions, or theories;

      - offering materials assembled or collected by others in the form of projects or collections without acknowledgment

   c. Interference: A student must not steal, change, destroy, or impede another student’s work, nor should the student unjustly attempt, through a bribe, a promise of favors or threats, to affect any student’s grade or the evaluation of academic performance.Impeding another student’s work includes, but is not limited to, the theft, defacement, or mutilation of resources so as to deprive others of the information they contain.

   d. Violation of Course Rules: A student must not violate course rules established by a department, the course syllabus, verbal or written instructions, or the course materials that are rationally related to the content of the course or to the enhancement of the learning process in the course.

   e. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty: A student must not intentionally or knowingly help or attempt to help another student to commit an act of academic misconduct, nor allow another student to use his or her work or resources to commit an act of misconduct.

OTHER POLICIES

1. Administrative withdrawal: A basic requirement of this course is that students complete all required course activities. If a student is unable to attend, participate in, or complete an assignment on time, it is the student’s responsibility to inform the instructor. If a student misses more than half of the required activities within the first 25% of the course without contacting the instructor, the student may be administratively withdrawn from this course. Administrative withdrawal may have academic, financial, and financial aid implications. Administrative withdrawal will take place after the full refund period, and a student who has been administratively withdrawn from a course is ineligible for a tuition refund.
Contact the instructor with questions concerning administrative withdrawal. Learn more at IUPUI Administrative Withdrawal Policy (studentcentral.iupui.edu/register/administrative-withdrawal.html)

2. Civility: To maintain an effective and inclusive learning environment, it is important to be an attentive and respectful participant in all course exercises. IUPUI nurtures and promotes “a campus climate that seeks, values, and cultivates diversity in all of its forms and that provides conditions necessary for all campus community members to feel welcomed, supported, included, and valued” (IUPUI Strategic Initiative 9). IUPUI prohibits “discrimination against anyone for reasons of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, or veteran status” (Office of Equal Opportunity). Profanity or derogatory comments about the instructor, fellow students, invited speakers, or any members of the campus community shall not be tolerated. A violation of this rule shall result in a warning and, if the offense continues, possible disciplinary action.

3. Communication: For online courses, the instructor or teaching assistant should respond to emails within two Indiana University working days, which excludes weekends and holidays. The instructor should accept appointments for face-to-face, telephone, or teleconferenced meetings, and announce periods of extended absence in advance.

4. Conferences: To present research at an academic conference as speaker is commendable and aligns with the educational and research mission of the school and university. However, instructors can only provide accommodations for absences if a student is presenting work, such as a paper or poster, or is supported by a school or campus-level scholarship. The student should request from the instructor accommodation for an absence as soon as possible upon paper, poster, or scholarship acceptance. In the request for accommodation for absence, the student should provide supporting documentation of acceptance as well as confirmation from their mentor or campus sponsor that the presentation is to meet a research, educational, or diversity objective. Permission is granted at the discretion of the instructor. Students should not expect an exception for nonacademic conferences or conferences at which the student is not presenting as speaker. Travel arrangements should not be made until the student has received permission from the instructor.

5. Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS): Students seeking counseling or other psychological services should contact the CAPS office at 274-2548 or capsindy@iupui.edu. For more information visit the CAPS website (iupui.edu/health-wellness/counseling-psychology/)

6. Course evaluations: Course evaluations provide vital information for improving the quality of courses and programs. Students are not required to complete a course or instructor evaluation for any section in which they are enrolled at the School of Informatics and Computing. Course evaluations are completed in Canvas (Course Questionnaire). Course evaluations are open from the eleventh week. Course evaluations are anonymous, which means that no one can view the name of the student completing the evaluation. In addition, no one can view the evaluation itself until after the instructor has submitted the final grades for the course. In small sections, demographic information should be left blank, if it could be used to identify the student.
7. Disabilities policy: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), all qualified students enrolled in this course are entitled to reasonable accommodations. Please notify the instructor during the first week of class of accommodations needed for the course. Students requiring accommodations because of a disability must register with Adaptive Educational Services (AES) and complete the appropriate AES-issued before receiving accommodations. Students with learning disabilities for which accommodations are desired should contact the Adaptive Educational Services office on campus, and inform the instructor as soon as possible: Adaptive Educational Services (AES) (diversity.iupui.edu/offices/aes/index.html), or 317-274-3241.

8. Email: Indiana University uses your IU email account as an official means of communication, and students should check it daily. Although you may have your IU email forwarded to an outside email account, please email faculty and staff from your IU email account.

9. Emergency preparedness: Know what to do in an emergency so that you can protect yourself and others. For more information, visit the emergency management website at Protect IU (protect.iu.edu/emergency-planning/emergency-contact/iupui.html).

10. University policies: Numerous policies governing IU faculty and students may be found at University Policies (policies.iu.edu/categories/academic-faculty-students.html).

11. No class attendance without enrollment. Only those who are officially enrolled in this course may attend class unless enrolled as an auditor or making up an Incomplete by prior arrangement with the instructor. This policy does not apply to those assisting a student with a documented disability, serving in an instructional role, or administrative personnel. See Register: Get ready to take classes (studentcentral.iupui.edu/register/index.html).

12. Religious holidays: Students seeking accommodation for religious observances must submit a request form to the course instructor by the end of the second week of the semester. For information visit You have the right to observe religious holidays (studentcentral.iupui.edu/calendars/holidays/index.html).

13. Right to revise: The instructor reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus as necessary and, in such an event, will notify students of the changes immediately.

14. Sexual misconduct: IU does not tolerate sexual harassment or violence. For more information and resources, visit Stop Sexual Violence (stopsexualviolence.iu.edu/)

15. Student advocate: The Office of Student Advocacy and Support assists students with personal, financial, and academic issues. The Student Advocate is in the Campus Center, Suite 350, and may also be contacted at 317 274-4431 or studvoc@iupui.edu. For more information visit Office of Student Advocacy and Support (studentaffairs.iupui.edu/advocacy-resources/index.html).
